

Preliminary Announcement

SPACE TRANSPORTATION TRAINING COURSE Training course intended for teachers in middle and high schools in member cities of the CVA (Community of Ariane Cities)

6, 7 and 8 July 2009,
Hardthausen / Lampoldshausen, Germany

Course organised by the CVA, ISSAT and the Forum Ariane Lampoldshausen, in cooperation with the Municipality of Hardthausen / Lampoldshausen, DLR_School_Lab Lampoldshausen and supported by EADS Astrium, the Eduard-Mörike-Grammar-School and the University of Applied Sciences of Heilbronn

REVA (Educational Network of Ariane Cities), programme set up by the CVA (Community of Ariane Cities) with the support of the ISSAT Association (Institut for Space, its Applications and Technologies), aims to encourage educational exchanges relating to Space activities within the CVA network. In this context CVA organise annual seminars to give middle and high school teachers in European member cities of the CVA the opportunity of attending training in Space Transportation and to extend this possibility to scientific coaches of the appropriate level of ability.

The Second Space Transportation training session, intended for teachers from CVA member cities, will be held on 6, 7 and 8 July 2009 in Hardthausen / Lampoldshausen, Germany, in cooperation with the DLR_School_Lab Lampoldshausen (Deutsches Zentrum für Luft- und Raumfahrt).

The CVA offers participants:

- a three-day training course in German or English on Space Transportation (maximum 30 attendees) with simultaneous translation in French, English or German,
- transport at the arrival and departure from and to Stuttgart Airport and Heilbronn main Railway station,
- local transport from hotel to the different places where the conferences and workshops are held : University of Heilbronn, DLR_School_Laboratories (Lampoldshausen), Eduard-Mörike-Grammar-School in Neueustadt and for the other organised excursions,
- accommodation (3 nights including breakfast, from 5 to 8 July) at Hotel-Restaurant "Rose", in Bitzfeld, 10 km far from Lampoldshausen,
- lunches and coffee breaks, tasting and cocktail during social events.

A symbolic participation fee of 50 € is required by each participant.

The DLR_School_Lab is responsible for the programme's educational aspects, which guarantee high-quality teaching led by respected speakers and experienced training facilitators.

The programme of the course is attached to this document
